

A PURE GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR POWDER

DR. PRICE'S
CREAM
BAKING
POWDER

Highest Honors, World's Fair
Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair

Avail Baking Powders containing alum. They are injurious to health

MISCELLANEOUS MELANGE.

[From Saturday's Daily.]

Dr. E. C. Gordon returned yesterday evening from Higginsville.

Mr. Geo. Blackwell is spending a few days with his home folks in our city.

Miss Bettie Hays left this morning for Mayview Mo., where she goes for a visit with Mr. Ookie Wilson.

Mr. John C. Henry, of St. Joe, arrived in our city this morning and is visiting the family of Capt. W. H. Edwards.

The transfer company keeps a call book at the Mammoth livery stable and one at the Grand Central hotel. Leave orders at these places.

Miss Nannie Chinn returned last night from Kansas City, where she has been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

City Attorney Chas. Lyons, Mr. H. C. Wallace, Jr., Misses Dick Graddy and Lottie Chambers left last night for McAlester Springs.

FOR SALE—I have for sale a good paying business, about two thousand cash required. For full particulars call on F. Lee Wallace, agent, Lexington, Mo. 4-27

Mrs. E. L. Beeding and little son, of St. Louis, who have been here on account of the death of Mrs. Caroline Ford, returned home yesterday evening.

Miss Lillian Moorehead returned this morning from McAlester Springs where she has been spending the past week with her mother, who is still there.

Master Frank Groves, who has been here for several weeks visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Groves, returned this morning to his home at Kansas City.

Mrs. Beuchle and her little daughter, Miss Maxie Keller, who have been visiting the family of Mr. Philip Keller, returned this morning to their home at St. Joseph.

Rev. Z. M. Williams returned last night from Gallatin and other points in the northern part of the state, where he has been at work in the interest of Central Female college.

Mr. David Lyons and his daughter, Miss May Lyons, left this morning for Greenwood, Mo., where Miss May will spend some time visiting friends. Mr. Lyons will return in a few days.

Mrs. W. A. Connell and son, Master Evan Connell, who have been spending a couple of weeks with relatives in and near Lexington, returned yesterday evening to Kansas City.

Dr. Sam T. Bassett, of St. Louis, arrived yesterday evening to spend a few days here with the family of Mr. Tilton Davis. He will go from here to Richmond, his old home, to visit relatives there.

There is no longer any excuse for anyone to endure the torture inflicted by piles when Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure them, a remedy so moderate in price and so effective. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 7-6ml

Dr. Eckles little son, Walter R. Eckle, Jr., yesterday fell down the three steps leading from the yard to the street pavement. Fortunately he received no injuries save a couple of slight bruises on the face and head.

Mr. Chas. Hohenwald, of Corder, who was here yesterday visiting his brother, Rev. H. Hohenwald, left this morning accompanied by Miss Clara Haas, who has been visiting the family of Rev. Hohenwald for the past week or ten days.

An unfortunate accident happened yesterday evening to Mr. Ed. Taubman's fine driver. The colored boy was unbitching the horse after Mr. Taubman had returned from a drive. Another horse running and playing near by caused Mr. Taubman's horse to break loose from the boy as he took off the bridle. The horse became entangled in some barb wire near by and was badly scratched on the chest and one hind leg. Fortunately the cuts are not deep.

[From Monday's Daily.]

Mr. Eddie Haekker went to St. Joseph this morning.

Mr. Carl Hays went to Clinton Saturday to visit relatives.

Mr. Wm. P. Callaway will leave tonight for a trip to Chicago.

Mrs. James Robinson returned yesterday evening from St. Louis.

Mrs. Clarence Vivion spent Sunday with relatives in Higginsville.

Mrs. B. R. Ireland went to Higginsville this morning to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moorehead returned this morning from McAlester Springs.

Mrs. Bert Taubman left this morning to spend a few days at McAlester Springs.

Dr. Meog and daughter, Miss Jean Meog, went to Higginsville this morning.

Messrs. Sanford and Dave Thornton went to Kansas City yesterday to visit their mother.

Rev. D. Buchmueller returned Saturday evening from a visit at his old home at Millstadt, Ill.

Miss Addie Curtis and Mrs. Bettie Spurr went to Higginsville yesterday morning to visit relatives.

Mr. H. Macey VanGuilder spent Saturday in our city looking after his coal mining interests here.

Mr. James Callahan, of Independence, came down Saturday night and spent Sunday in our city.

Miss Della Trail came down from Kansas City Saturday night to visit her father's family over Sunday.

Master Wm. Stonestreet, Jr., went to Kansas City this morning to spend a couple of weeks with his father.

Mr. Joseph Alford came in Saturday evening from Bates county, where he has been visiting several weeks.

Miss Lucy May Payne, who has been visiting relatives in Kansas City, returned home Saturday night.

Mr. Wm. Bandon, of Kansas City, came down Saturday night to spend Sunday here with his wife and baby.

Mr. Joseph Graddy went to McAlester Springs yesterday to join the Lexington crowd now sojourning there.

Mrs. Fannie Saunders went to Kansas City Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Brannock.

Mr. John Henry, who has been visiting Capt. Edwards' family for a few days, returned to Kansas City this morning.

Judge J. M. Lowe, of Kansas City, came down yesterday morning to spend the day at Linwood Lawn, his country residence.

Mr. M. L. Smithers, of St. Louis, who has been a few days visiting relatives in Lexington, returned last night to St. Louis.

Mrs. Dave Callahan, of Jefferson City, arrived yesterday evening to visit her brothers, Messrs. Bert and Will Trotter for a few days.

Church of Christ Scientist, Sunday services as follows: 10:30 a. m., Sunday school 11:30 a. m., at Knights of Pythias hall. All are cordially invited. 11

Miss Bessie Atkinson returned this morning from Independence, Mo., where she has been spending a week since her return from Bellville, Kas.

Mrs. Edwin Barcott went to Winton yesterday to spend the day with relatives and was joined by her husband, who came down from Kansas City.

Mr. W. R. Journeay, who has charge of the civil engineering between this point and Lake City, spent yesterday with his family in Higginsville.

Miss Naomi Adams, of Marshall, returned home this morning, after a visit of about three weeks with the family of Mr. J. L. Marshall, south of town.

Mr. W. P. Aull ships five loads of cattle today over the Santa Fe to Chicago; two loads from Bates City and two loads from Page City all to Chicago.

Mr. Julius Hainkel and his son, Siegel Hainkel, spent yesterday in Kansas City. Siegel has secured a position there in the Askeu Saddlery company.

Miss Mary Andreen left Saturday evening for a trip to Buffalo and a number of other places of interest in the north and east. She will be joined by her father at Sedalia and he goes with her on the trip.

If the stomach, liver and bowels fail to perform their functions regularly and naturally, the blood becomes contaminated with impurities, and the whole system is in consequence debilitated. Herbine is remarkable for its efficacy in curing the ailments of summer, and the disorders prevalent during hot weather. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 7-6ml

Mr. John Fulkerson, of Nevada, formerly sheriff of this county, came in this morning from Wellington, where he has been to look after his wheat crop.

Messrs. Stanley Gordon and Shannon Carter came down Saturday night from Kansas City for a visit over Sunday with the family of Dr. E. C. Gordon.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred shorthorn bulls and heifers for sale. Apply at my farm, 8 mile east of Lexington, on the Salt Pond road, or apply to me at Higginsville. N. M. COOPER. 4-2711

Miss Carrie Fulkerson, of Nevada, who has been visiting in Waverly and vicinity, returned Saturday evening for a visit with relatives and friends in our city.

Mr. F. B. Duvall went to Sedalia Saturday evening to visit his little daughter, Estelle McGrew Duvall, who is with her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Bard, in Sedalia.

HOME MONEY TO LOAN.—On good real estate security. In sums of $500 and up, at 7 per cent. No commission, no red tape. Apply to J. Q. Plattenburg. 11

Mr. and Mrs. Tunstall came in Saturday night from Harrisonville, where Mrs. Tunstall has been for several weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. K. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, who are driving through from Kansas City to Marshall in their elegant trap, are spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomas.

Miss Mella Drummert, of Warrenton, Mo., who has been visiting relatives in Higginsville, spent the day here yesterday with Miss Kate Howe, and left this morning for a visit at Waverly.

Mrs. Pierce, mother of Mr. Ben Pierce, died Saturday night at the home of her son in East Lexington. The funeral took place from the house at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. E. J. Fenstermacher officiating.

To Close Our Stock of Summer Woolens

we will give choice of 25
Suits formerly sold not less than . . . . .

$30.00

now at the uniform price of

$20.00

made and trimmed equally as well as if you were paying full price. All

Pants

formerly made to order from $6.00 to $7.50

now at the uniform price of

$5.00

All pants that formerly sold from $8 to $12 now only

$7.50

Philip Keller
Merchant Tailor

Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge went to Higginsville yesterday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Thomas, and to join her in celebrating the anniversary of her birthday. This is the first time Mr. Dodge has been out of town in three years.

Mr. H. H. Wessendorf, accompanied by his wife and family, left yesterday morning for Los Angeles, Cal., where they go to make their future home. Miss Laura Winkler went with them for a visit with relatives at Los Angeles.

An enterprising youngster of an investigating turn of mind held a lighted match to the bulb of the large thermometer that hung in front of Mr. Wm. Loomis' drug store. Result, an explosion of the bulb and tube, a badly scared "kid" and Mr. Loomis wondering if the Fourth of July had returned. That was the highest thermometer in town, but the kid has not yet reported how high it did go.

Died, at his residence, about six miles southwest of Wellington, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, James Anderson Thorp, aged 47 years. The funeral will be preached at the house tomorrow morning and the remains will be brought to this city for burial at about 11 o'clock. Dr. Chas. Manly will conduct the services at the cemetery. Mr. Thorp was a single man and leaves of his immediate family, two sisters, Mrs. Reed Kinkaid, of near Wellington, and Mrs. Beasley, of Colorado. He was a man of most excellent standing in the community. His father, Col. Frank Thorp, was one of the old Missouri pioneers. Mr. Thorp was a successful farmer, kind and generous, an excellent neighbor and greatly beloved and esteemed by all who knew him.

[From Tuesday's Daily.]

Mr. Robert Ardinger left this morning for Fort Sill, I. T.

Several good farms for rent. Apply to J. Q. Plattenburg. 2-1011.

Mrs. Shell Belt, of Higginsville is visiting in our city today.

Prof. C. A. Phillips returned this morning from Lee's Summit.

Mr. Horace Blackwell returned this morning from Jefferson City.

Messrs. Wilson and Curtis ship a car of hogs from Winton today to St. Louis.

Mr. Charlie Longdon went to Independence yesterday evening for a brief visit.

Mr. A. M. Dickinson returned this morning from Buffalo and a trip to his old home.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Mr. William Oetting and Miss Martha Roope, both of Concordia.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED—The INTELLIGENCER wants a correspondent in every town in Lafayette county. Write or particulars.

Mr. Geo. Callaway and son, Ross, went to Kansas City this morning. Mr. Callaway will probably buy some cattle while there.

The transfer company keeps a call book at the Mammoth livery stable, and on at the Grand Central hotel. Leave orders at these places. 10-27-11

Master Limrick Chancellor, of St. Louis, came in from St. Joe Sunday morning and is visiting the family of Mr. Geo. M. Mountjoy.

Justices of the peace and notaries public can be supplied with chattle mortgages at this office, at 5 cents per copy. All kinds of blanks printed to order. 11

Mrs. D. C. Morris and son, Master Irwin, of Slater, returned home this morning. They were accompanied by Miss Emma Hix, Mrs. Morris' sister.

Messrs. Wm. Smith and A. M. Mitchell left this morning for El Reno, Oklahoma, where they expect to try for a claim in the new territory.

Mr. John Fulkerson, who is here from Nevada, Mo., for a few days, went to Wellington yesterday evening to look after the shipment of his wheat.

Mrs. John Webb and Mrs. R. L. Drummond, of Waverly, passed through our city last night on their way to Buckner, where they go to visit friends.

Two more of the horses taken from this county were recovered yesterday. They are the two stolen from Dr. Watts, of Napoleon, some months ago. They were found in the country near Atchison.

Little Miss Helen and Master Horace Stewart left this morning on their way home to Denver, Col. They were accompanied as far as Kansas City by Miss Mattie Green, who will see them started safely from Kansas City.

Herbine clears the complexion, gives buoyancy to the mind, cures headache, regulates the stomach and bowels, stimulates the liver, and is, in fact, a perfect guardian of the health. Price 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 7-6ml

DRESS WELL

There is nothing that makes a man feel better than the knowledge of being well dressed. When you have a suit made from the newest materials, just the style and a perfect fit you have this knowledge. Our suits have the style, fit and material; the quality and workmanship are guaranteed . . . .

Wittenberg
The Tailor.

Over Ludwigs' Jewelry Store

Mrs. Mollie Hays returned last night from Spring Hill, Johnson county, Kas., where she has been visiting relatives for the past six weeks. On her way home she spent several days in Kansas City.

Mr. B. A. Reynolds, from near Hall's station, will leave in a few days for El Reno, Oklahoma, to try his luck for a claim in the new country. We dislike to see a good man leave Lafayette county, but we wish him well wherever he goes and trust that he may be so fortunate as to get a good claim.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The trouble arises from indigestion; their food is not assimilated, but devoured, by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will destroy the worms, when the children will begin to thrive at once. Price 25 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 7-6ml Married, at Palo Alto, Cal., June 19th, 1901, Mr. Geo. Thomas Cochran and Miss Pearl Green. Mr. Cochran is a graduate of Leland Stanford University in which institution he received highest honors in a large class of students. Miss Green, the bride, was for five years a student in Central Female college, at this place, and has many relatives and friends in this county where she formerly lived.

Twenty-five or thirty of the members of the W. O. W. band, Dr. W. R. Eckle chief "tooter," went out last night equipped with their usual tin cans, dish pans, tin horns and other producers of discordant sounds, to the residence of Mr. Jas. McDowell in Pomeroy's addition to confer upon him the matrimonial or tin can degree. After enjoying (?) for a short time the music of the band Mr. McDowell "set 'em up" to a fine box of cigars and quiet was restored.

In the settlement of the estate of the late J. G. Fair, the California multi-millionaire, the lawyers' fees amounted to $1,200,000. The smallest fee in the list was that of Wilson & Wilson, $240,000. They are still young men and are nephews of the late Capt. George Wilson, of this city, and their maternal grandfather, John Scott, was last attorney general of Louisiana Territory, last delegate in congress from Missouri territory and first congressman from the state of Missouri.

Governor Dockery's Proclamation.
Governor Dockery yesterday at noon issued the following proclamation:
JEFFERSON CITY, MO., July 15, 1901.
Whereas, the prevailing drouth is widespread and disaster threatens our commonwealth, and
Whereas, many earnest Christian people have petitioned that a day of fasting and prayer be appointed; therefore be it known that Sunday, July 21st, be and the same is hereby set apart as a day of fasting and prayer that the threatened disasters may be averted and to this end the people are requested to assemble at their usual places of worship to invoke the blessings of Almighty God.
"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Missouri.
"Done at the City of Jefferson this fifteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and one.—A. M. Dockery, governor, Sam B. Cook, secretary of state."

Notice to Confederate Veterans.
On July 27th there will be a meeting of Lexington Camp No. 648, U. C. V., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the state reunion at Springfield, Mo., August 8, 9 and 10. The confederate monument will be unveiled and dedicated at the confederate cemetery with appropriate military and civic honors.
Chattel mortgages for sale at this office 5 cents each. 11